CELEBRATION OF ANNIVERSARY.

The seventy-first anniversary of the organization of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of Alexandria, will be celebrated this evening in the Young People's building of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Addresses will be delivered by W. W. Millan, grand representative of the District of Columbia; Hill Montague, of Richmond, grand representative of the state of Virginia; and John B. Goodwin, of Baltimore, Md., sovereign grand secretary of the order. Mr. Goodwin is a past grand sire of the order of Odd Fellows, and was formerly mayor of Atlanta, Ga.

The musical feature will be the Philharmonic Quartette, of Washington, comprising Mrs. De Yo, Mrs. G. Moore, Miss Hansen, and Miss Ochoa, who will give several selections under the direction of Prof. H. Wheat in Howard. John M. Kline will give several dramatic readings. The speakers and other prominent members of the order will arrive in Alexandria from Washington on the palace car.

SUICIDE OF A COLORED MAN.

Charles Pendleton, colored, twenty-five years old, a cooper employed at the Porter brewery, on Saturday afternoon cut his throat from ear to ear with a razor at the home of Irene Sparrow, colored, 1109 Queen street. Pendleton was not found until six o'clock in the evening, when he was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where his wound was dressed by Dr. Walter Warfield. Pendleton lost practically all the blood in his body and died yesterday at noon. Police headquarters were notified when Pendleton was found and Chief Goods went to the house and summoned an ambulance, and Pendleton with much difficulty walked into the vehicle. Pendleton came to Alexandria from the south about six weeks ago. It is said he came from Lynchburg, and it is said that ill-health was the cause of his rash act.

CHARGE DISMISSED.

Two merchants were cited to appear in the Police Court this morning to show cause why they should not be fined for throwing waste paper in the street. There was no evidence to show that either had violated the law, and they were dismissed. It seems that the charges originated in the distribution of handbills with which the main streets had been littered, and Justice Oton in summing up the case said he regretted that there was no law on the statute books forbidding the distribution of such advertising means save by the placing of the bills in homes or sending them through the mail. The bills were generally handed to people on the streets and the latter almost invariably threw them on the sidewalks or into gutters and the wind wafted them to and fro.

BIBLE CLASS AND SENATE ATTEND SERVICES.

Rev. C. D. Bull's Bible class and the Young Men's Senate attended service last night in the M. E. Church South. Between fifty and sixty young men entered to a body, and took places that had been reserved for them. Mr. Bull was at his best, and took for his theme the "Ladder of Success," and named the stages—purpose, ambition, work, character and prayer—showing that the road to success was character, with religion as the goal. This was the last service for Mr. Bull after four years of the best work among the young people ever accomplished in Alexandria and they regret very much to see him go to a new field.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Cato presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lizzie Richards, colored charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $5. A young white man, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

John Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting his wife, Victoria Johnson, was fined $10.

Two merchants, charged with throwing waste paper in the streets, were dismissed.

PALM SUNDAY.

Yesterday was Palm Sunday and the weather was mild and springlike. In many of the churches appropriate services were held and in St. Mary's Church palms were blessed and distributed. The services in all the churches were well attended and throughout the day many persons were on the street and there were liberal displays of spring dresses, hats, etc. In the evening rain fell preceded by thunder and lightning.

CONFERENCE.

As heretofore stated the annual meeting of the Baltimore Conference M. E. Church South will open in Mt. Vernon Place Church in Washington on Wednesday and will be in session about a week. Bishop A. W. Wilson will preside. The opening sermon Tuesday night will be preached by Rev. Dr. D. I. Mitchell, of St. John's-Emmanuel Church. Rev. C. D. Bull having served four years in this city will not be returned.

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH.

Mrs. Catherine Smith, widow of George S. Smith, died yesterday morning at the home of her son, Mr. E. Stuart Smith, 303 Prince street. Death was due to heart trouble. She had previously been a sufferer from pneumonia. Mrs. Smith was a native of Alexandria, and was about 61 years old. She was a daughter of the late Samuel Tennessee. Her son and two grandchildren are the only survivors in the immediate family.

BODY FOUND.

The body of a negro named Nelson, thirty years old, was discovered yesterday morning in Hunting Creek, near the electric railway bridge, at New Alexandria. The body was in an upright position and one hand was stuck in the mud. Constable A. J. Payne made an examination and found $5.90 in his pockets together with a check book and several papers. The body had been in the water some time, although it was not badly decomposed. Justice Wright held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict of death by drowning.

Nelson lived in Alexandria county, and had been employed at the Potomac railroad yard. It is believed he fell from the bridge about a month ago, as about that time cries were heard by persons in that vicinity.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. W. B. Lloyd, of Red Bank, N. J., is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. S. Leadbeater.

Booth, left Saturday for her home in Sandy Spring, Md.

ALLEGED BICYCLE THIEVES.

After spending almost a week in the Alexandria jail, J. A. Harman and R. Blankenship, two nineteen-year-old boys, reached Richmond Saturday night in charge of acting Detective Kellam. They are charged with stealing two bicycles from A. P. Gentry and attempting to sell them in this city. One of the youths said while in jail in Alexandria they had only one meal a day, and that was a quart of bean soup minus beans. One of the boys ate five sandwiches and still looked hungry. The officer in charge of them brought lunches at different stations on the trip to Richmond but the appetites of the youths were still voracious when they reached that city. City Sergeant Cox, emphatically denies the stories told by the prisoners, and says they were furnished with an abundance of substantial food daily while they were confined in the jail.

FISHING ON POTOMAC.

Messrs. Herring & Pyke, at Gums: Capt. J. E. Gibson, at Arkendale, and Capt. A. L. Fonce, at Marlboro, have all put in their early spring sessions on the Potomac. The catch up to last week was good but when the snow came it brought rough weather and since then the catch has been poor. The most of the best fish are sent to Philadelphia and New York and the ordinary are shipped to Richmond, where they bring better prices than elsewhere. (Fredericksburg Star.)

FEAST OF PURIM FRIDAY.

The Feast of Purim, celebrating the deliverance of the Jews of Persia in the fifth century B. C. will be observed next Friday by reading from the Book of Esther. The Alliance Israelite Universelle, which has its seat in Paris, has asked for donations to extend its work in the countries where Jews form a large center of population.

REVIVAL MEETING.

The revival service which began yesterday morning in the Second Baptist Church, was very well attended, and at night the house was full. Dr. Fisher preached two very strong sermons and much interest was shown. The meetings will be held every night this week at 7:30 p. m.

ATTEMPT TO BURN BUILDING.

An attempt was made at a late hour Saturday night to start a fire in the frame building at the southeast corner of Princess and Fairfax streets, formerly known as the London Hotel, and owned by the late Daniel Henry. The attempt was frustrated by a colored attack who extinguished the flames before any serious damage followed. The interior of one of the small buildings had been saturated with coal oil and a match applied.

A PLEA FOR OUR CEMETERY.

In this day of very strenuous living we are about to forget the fact that not far away from us is the old cemetery in whose keeping lies the mortal part of those we love, and we are apt to forget that some day we, too, shall be numbered among them.

A visit to St. Paul's Cemetery will impress one with its very neglected and dilapidated condition. The roads are very flat, soft, and full of ruts, with mud in places ankle deep; some of the stones in the older lots are ready to fall, others are down; where the graves have long since sunk out of sight, leaving unsightly holes. In the summer the grass and weeds are allowed to grow to such an extent that it looks like a wilderness, a dwelling place for all kinds of creeping things.

We are told in the Good Book that we are made in the image of God and that our bodies are the temples of God. When the vital spark leaves the body, shall we not still reverence it as having been the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit?

The poet Longfellow speaks so beautifully of the burial ground as "God's Acre" and says, "It consecrates each grave within its walls and breathes a benison o'er the sleeping dust."

Should we not, we, who are still in our earthly pilgrimage, see to it that our cemetery be made like a beautiful garden where our eyes may not be offended by the neglected and uncared for appearance, and our heart saddened by the thought, "Ah, how soon we are forgotten."

President Taft, in addressing a tuberculosis conference at Rochester, N. Y., Saturday, said it would be wiser for the governor to develop healthy men, instead of promoting the breed of cattle and favored a bureau of health.

Eugene Debs in a speech in Philadelphia Saturday night called the mayor a monkey and referred to the city hall as a nest of thieves. He commanded the striking carmen to stand firm and refuse to arbitrate anything.

Order Your Overland Now Delay Means Disappointment

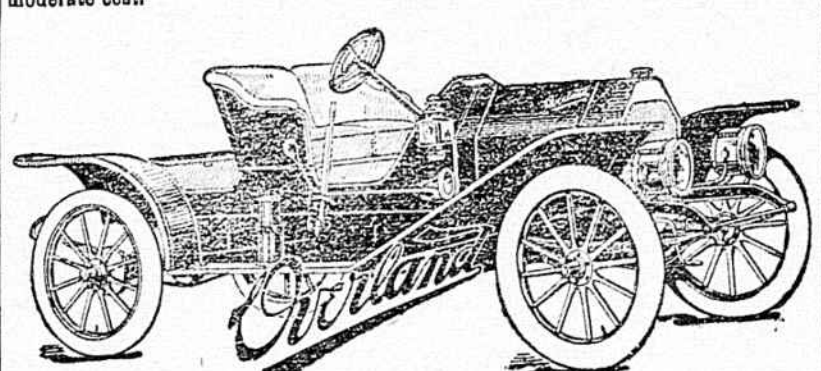

Last season there were over 8,000 people whose orders for Overlands were received too late. Our factory can build only 20,000 cars this year. Every single car has been contracted for. When our allotment is filled we cannot get more at any price. Half the people who want to buy Overlands here will be unable to get them. Get yours now.

The tremendous demand for Overlands has practically swamped the factory. Orders are piling in at twice the rate of production. Even with five times the factory facilities of last year, the output is daily falling in their behind the demand.

Every Overland put into an owner's hands sells four others like it. Sixteen thousand 1910 Overlands were contracted for last August, simply on the record of the four thousand 1909 cars. Every new Overland that appears on the road creates further demand for this wonderful car.

The reason behind this unheard-of demand is sheer merit—nothing else. Up to January, 1910, the car was never even advertised. But the Overland proves so reliable, so simple, so trouble-proof, so economical that now everybody who learns the fact wants one of these matchless cars.

Men who never before thought of buying cars are buying Overlands. Men who have owned other cars are buying them for their mechanical correctness. Wealthy men buy them because of their handiness. Poor men buy Overlands because they are the first good cars at a moderate cost.
